SHORE HIGH SCHOOL
NEWCLIFF, OHIO

FOREWORD

We, the Annual Staff, chose a theme appropriate for the times and although we have treated it lightly, we are not unmindful of its seriousness. We hope that this book will prove to be a permanent record for you of all your good times, your friends, and your life at school this past year.

DEDICATION

To America, her unselfish aid in the cause of freedom, her final victory over the enemy, and to the preservation of our democratic way of life, this book is dedicated.

This school year will be one, no doubt, that you will long remember because of America's entry into the war. Because of what has happened, this year at school should have taken an added significance in your mind. You should have enjoyed to the fullest your friendships, activities and your classes.

Chief of Staff

Mr. Erwine is the chief of staff of our army, the superintendent of the Euclid schools. He is at the head of the five divisions, Euclid Shore, Euclid Central, Upson, and Roosevelt.

For the past three years his work in connection with our "armed forces" has proved beneficial.

RUSSELL H. ERWINE

Draft Board

The draft board operates with the idea of "drafting" or introducing ideas which will help the army move ahead. Euclid, a progressive city, finds it necessary to have an up-to-date army. The Board of Education of the Euclid schools serves as the draft board. The members are Mr. William Hecker, Mr. Ray Turk, Mr. Clarence Bliss, Mr. Loren Bullard, and Mr. Russell Glass.

General

Dr. Leonard E. Loos, our general, devotes his time to helping Shore and its students. Under his able leadership, Shore has grown and Shore students have grown with the school until they have accomplished tasks worthy of good "soldiers." His leadership has placed Shore in the spotlight for its fine work in Red Cross, Safety, and other aspects of Civilian Defense.

General Staff Corps

To consider and prepare plans for the future, is the duty of the General Staff Corps. Miss Albrecht, Dean of Girls, Mr. Peake, Dean of Boys, and Mr. Voorhees, Director of Pupil Personnel comprise Shore's General Staff Corps.

Our Dean of Boys and our Dean of Girls help the students prepare for the time when they will have finished their service in the army. "Soldiers" of Shore should feel free to consult the deans at any time.

Mr. Voorhees, the Director of Pupil Personnel, checks up on the "soldiers" who are A. W. O. L. He is friendly with the students, but occasionally is forced to take drastic measures.

B. HOWARD PEAKE

LEONARD B. VORHEES

Military Intelligence Corps

The Military Intelligence Corps aids the students in expressing themselves well, whether the expression be written or spoken. The corps offers four years of training; during this time the student is assisted in every possible way.

Miss Aingworth, Miss Campbell, Miss Smith, Mr. Angene, Miss Pierson, Mr. Baumer, and Mr. Hinch are included in Shore's Intelligence Corps. Together they arrange a four year English program to be diligently followed. Correct speech and writing are the first requirements of an American citizen or an American soldier, anxious to serve his country. When this program, planned by the English Department, is completed, the student is well on his way to becoming a perfect "soldier," and is equipped to enter any "branch of the service."

Chemical Warfare Service

To benefit mankind in time of peace, as well as war, is the purpose and duty of the Chemical Warfare Service. Science is not only responsible for the appearance of bombs and explosive gases, but also of water which combats these things. Mr. DiBlasio, Mr. Spangler, Mr. Gebhart, and Mr. Sharrock unveil science and its puzzles to students of Shore who are interested in man's warfare. The world of today would not be so advanced were it not for science. Synthetics, for instance, have found their way into our everyday lives.

Volunteers

Volunteers keeping up the army's morale are Mr. Beck and Mr. Harper. By training Shore students to appreciate good music, they are helping them to become better "soldiers" and better citizens. We should be grateful to them for the services they have rendered and the fine music they have brought to us.

IRA STUBBART

PAUL RHOADES

JOHN POHTO

Military Engineers

Mathematics has gained a new prominence in our modern world. To understand a problem is to have it solved. Mathematics has a place in warfare but its place in peaceful pursuits has reached a new height. The world of the unknown is explored and its intricacies revealed by Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Pohto, Mr. Stubbart, and Mr. Rhoades.

DOROTHY GILL

JANE WILLIAMS

Diplomatic Service

World conditions being what they are, it is absolutely essential that our Diplomatic Service be efficient. Miss Williams and Mr. Vaccariello acquaint us with the language, life, and customs of countries foreign to us. Now, more than ever before, we should better try to understand the people of strange countries.

DR. J. M. NAMEN

IRENE E. HORVATH

CLARENCE SWACKHAMER

Medical Corps

The well-being of any army depends upon the efficiency of its medical corps, and Shore's army is no exception. Dr. Namen, Miss Horvath, Miss Gill, and Mr. Swackhamer are Shore's upholders of the principles of good health.

Defense commences with perfect health, and defense is now uppermost in the mind of everyone. Shore's Medical Corps is striving to improve the well-being of Shore's students by encouraging the students to realize the importance of physical fitness. Physical activity aids in combating illness; it strengthens the body and stimulates the mind.

Finance Department

To "make both ends meet" is the aim of the Finance Department. The balancing of books, the writing of checks and bills and letters, the typing of important documents, are all left to the Finance Department. "Soldiers" who are especially interested in this "branch of the service" receive the assistance of Miss Fhyvers, Miss Darst, and Mr. Farquhar.

JUNE PHYVERS

ALEXANDER FARQUHAR

LOUISE DARST

Signal Corps

Contacts with people outside of our own immediate city, state, and country are important, and more often than not, valuable. The Signal Corps makes such contacts possible. Miss Pierson, Mr. Schwegler, and Mr. Whiteside aid us in comprehending the messages from distant countries. They bring to Shore students the straight, undistorted facts, thus furnishing them with the opportunity to form their own opinions.

ANNETTE PIERSON

WALT SCHWEGLER

STANLEY L. WHITESIDE

Ordnance Department

The manufacture of ammunition is taken care of by the Ordnance Department. Shore's ammunition is an ammunition which helps to destroy the evils of war and bring about a lasting peace. Mr. Vaughn, Mr. Case, and Mr. Winters have charge of this department. The Shore Breeze, which brings to light the true facts, is one form of the ammunition with which Shore's "soldiers" are well supplied. Mr. Case shows the boys how to use wood to the best advantage by making useful articles and repairing damaged ones. Mr. Case's ammunition may adequately be termed conservation. Mr. Winters instructs in the correct way of driving. Safe drivers provide ammunition against recklessness and carelessness.

CHARLES VAUGHN

FORD L. CASE

PAUL WINTERS

Aides to the General

To transmit the general's orders and otherwise assist him are the duties of the Aides to the General. They deal directly with the "soldiers," imparting to them requested knowledge. Mrs. Crampton, Miss Chance, and Miss Castelli are General Loos' aides. They take care of important papers, answer telephone calls, and perform a host of other duties.

MARY R. CRAMPTON

ELIZABETH CHANCE

BETTY CASTELLI

National Guard

An army, like other organizations, has its fine arts, and if the fine arts are to be preserved someone must be close at hand to do so. Miss Doolittle gives the "soldiers" practice in painting, carving, and other forms of art. Miss Lemon is helping with the clothing problem, for soldiers must be neat, while Miss Rosenberger is lending a hand with the cooking, because every soldier loves to eat. Miss Doolittle, Miss Lemon, and Miss Rosenberger deserve a great deal of credit for keeping the fine and useful arts alive.

PHILENE DOOLITTLE

EDITH LEMON

HETTY ROSENBERGER

Department of ## Public Relations

Sometimes we have a tendency to forget the people who are of service to us; nevertheless, we are aware of the services they render. When we desire "that special book," or help in our jobs, or a piece of furniture moved, or any one of numerous favors, we go to the people who will help us. Mrs. Chalfant, Miss Sullivan, and Mr. Bones make up the Department of Public Relations.

Miss Sullivan is of great help to those students desiring jobs. She keeps in contact with store managers and offers helpful suggestions to the students.

Appropriations Board

The main duty of the Ad Committee is to sell tickets for all the school activities. Football games, basketball games, musical productions, and plays would be failures without the aid of this committee. First the members scout for the sales by placing posters in store windows and around the school. They advance closer to their objective by selling tickets to anyone and everyone. On the day or night of the event, they take tickets, sell candy, and usher, thus capably taking charge of everything. Their only reward for valor is the thanks of the school for doing a necessary job so well. Mr. Spangler is the moving spirit behind the Ad Committee.

Malin, McCarthy Are Co - Editors

In order to reduce the large volume of extra work weighing upon the shoulders of a single editor in connection with the publishing of the weekly Shore Breeze, Margaret McCarthy and Phyllis Malin were made co-editors.

Roto Section Is Distributed Monthly

The Scholastic Roto was an additional attraction each month to the Breeze. This picture section, nationally distributed, gave the students a splendid conception of the activities of high school students throughout the country.

BREEZE IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY

The second page of the Shore Breeze contained many humorous and strange stories making it unique in itself. Among the articles featured regularly were "Do Tell" and "A Senior Portrait"

This year the Shore Breeze has been printed weekly. To edit the Breeze each week meant that thirty issues were printed during the year compared to the seventeen issues of the previous years.

Reconnaissance Crew

Every school and every army needs someone or some organization to provide entertainment for relaxation and to provide rewards for honors received. The Student Council is such an organization. This group, composed of representatives from every homeroom, has provided us with many free dances and several special ones such as the Football Dance and Victory Dance. Their greatest achievement was the purchasing of the electric scoreboard for basketball games. This was obtained by their sponsoring a magazine selling campaign. Another of this organization's revolutionary ideas was Stunt Night. The awards that the Student Council purchased were the gold baseballs, National Honor pins, gold basketballs and metals.

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp

Our band is marching to fame. Shore has just reason to be proud of its band for this year it has reached its greatest musical heights, claiming a uniformed membership of sixty talented musicians.

Mr. James E. Tecter, leaving to answer the call of his country, gave the director's position to Mr. Dale Harper.

The band has given unanimous support to all activities it has participated in. Most outstanding was the spectacular exhibition of patriotism at the annual night football game at Willoughby; the splendid support offered by the band in the Pageant of Defense Bonds, at the concert at the Shore Theatre, and the North Eastern Ohio Basketball Tournament held the 4, 5, 6, 7, 13, and 14 of March this year.

There's Something About a Uniform

While the new brilliant uniforms of white, blue and gold may be first to attract the eye, there's no denying the agile ability of the girls wearing them.

Headed by Arline Johnson, Shore's Drum Majorettes have progressed rapidly in their single year of training and are well deserving of high merits.

Active in the participation of maneuvers of the band, they have done much to add color and enjoyment to this highly successful organization.

The "Voices" of the People

Symbolic of the hope and faith of the people today, the choir of seventy-five blended voices is doing its part in keeping up the morale of our country. Having already participated in affairs of a patriotic nature, the future promises that this support of the choir will continue to be in demand.

Most notable were its performances at the concert in the Shore Theatre, the Baccalaureate Service and the Commencement Exercises.

The traditional Christmas program at Shore was a grand success. A celestial atmosphere of calm was achieved by the beautifully sung Christmas carols.

Mr. John Beck is the able instructor and advisor. To him goes much of the credit for the success of this organization.

"Through the Night" is a mystery-comedy with a plot that exposes the stability of a family when murder strikes. While entertaining in his summer home, prior to the coming marriage of his niece, the master of the house is killed by his business manager. The murderer cleverly disguises his crime and shifts suspicion upon the Owl, a prowler in the summer-colony vicinity. After the Owl begins to help the poor and establishes his innocence, the murderer turns the ray of guilt to a strange and charming but absent-minded guest, Bunny. The awkward assistance of the village police results in the escape of the murderer while the stranger is more directly involved. Sayre, the bride-to-be, and the maid of honor by trigger-fast work halt the murderer.

INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT

The National Forensic League

Besides an active fighting army, every country needs a small separate army to incite civilians to aid their country. This problem was very ably handled by the Shore chapter of the National Forensic League. The subject of their debates was "Resolved: That as a Permanent Policy Every Able Bodied Male Citizen Should Be Required to Have One Year of Full-Time Military Training Before Attaining the Present Draft Age." The members of this society have obtained their goal by debates, oratory, declamations, and extemporaneous speeches. Each member becomes eligible for the Forensic League if he is in the upper two-thirds of his class and has earned twenty points by speaking in any of the above-mentioned activities. His final reward is the receipt of a silver key for a job well done.

The National Honor Society

Step forth for your award for valor! These are the words that each member of the National Honor Society mentally hears as he is initiated into this society. Each initiate has waited long for this occasion; he has worked hard to obtain his reward. Each member must have a fine character and a fine disposition, willing to undertake and to plan anything. He must be a good student, have good leadership, and lastly, willingness to give service—to his friends and to his school. Each and every member must have these qualities, and belonging to this society is recognition of one's work.

The National Quill and Scroll

Every army needs correspondents who can write important news correctly and concisely. The members of the Quill and Scroll are the best of these. They have been recognized internationally for their ability and effort as journalists. But not every journalist can qualify for this society. First, each member must be in the upper third of his class, for intelligent and clear writing is important. Second, he must be a member of the business or editorial staff of the school paper or Annual, since voluntary and productive work is needed for becoming a better journalist. Third, he must be recommended by faculty advisors for outstanding work. Fourth, a sample of his best work must be sent to the National Offices where, upon approval, he is accepted as a member. Thus, his reward comes after long and diligent perseverance toward a useful goal.

THE "ARSENAL" OF GOOD TIME

In an inspiring and traditional ceremony, the girls of the Friendship Club again this fall dedicated themselves to the ideals and principles for which the club stands. Maintaining that every girl has a mental, physical, and spiritual side, the club attempts to help its members grow in these three ways.

In many club meetings they have had talks, discussions, and demonstrations on how to improve their looks, figures, and personalities. Discussing such problems as dates, boy friends, and etiquette, this organization is bent on turning out poised, competent, well groomed young women with likeable personalities.

Every year the Friendship girls and the Hi-Y boys have enjoyed a joint Christmas formal and this year was no exception. To the lilting strains of popular songs, gay couples danced amid bright decorations and twinkling Christmas trees which made the gymnasium almost unrecognizable. In the early spring, the girls had their own formal, also a successful event.

Patriotism is by far no small part of their thoughts for in almost every class one can hear the "clackety-clack" of knitting needles as some earnest member painstakingly "knits for Britain." At Christmas and Thanksgiving, baskets were made up and given to needy families in Euclid. Another custom of a charitable kind that they performed, was the dressing of dolls which were given to the Rosemary Home for Crippled Children. The girls are not only giving support to their country, but are also rooting for their school. They paid for one of the new cheer-leader's uniforms and they always buy space in the Annual every year.

Early this fall, the girls had a rip-roaring time at their Hallowe'en party. There were all sorts of costumes and a prize was given for the most original one. There was fun and laughter, dancing, and, of course, cider and doughnuts.

A novel and successful idea was their box social. With appropriate decorations and to the chant of the auctioneer, Mr. Baumer, gaily decorated lunches were raffled off to the highest bidder. There was dancing until eleven and when the couples left, there was the feeling that another Friendship affair had been successfully completed.

Among those events anticipated in the calendar was the Mother and Daughter banquet, which is almost part of the tradition of the Club. Also a kids' party and, of course, the Seniors' farewell.

No mention of the Friendship Club is ever complete without a word about Miss Campbell. She has been the sponsor of the club since it was first introduced to Shore. Her expert guidance, her interest in each girl as an individual, and her love of fun, have given back-bone to the club and provided a spirit which is felt by each girl.

Every Friendship Club girl feels a sadness in leaving the club, but she also feels that the friendships made there, and the good times enjoyed, have made her high school days a little richer and fuller.

"THE BOYS"

During the past year, helping the U. S. Government in National Defense was another purpose added to the outstanding acclaim already gained by the Euclid Shore chapter of the Y. M. C. A.

Having found that we had the largest membership in the history of the school, Walter Schwegler, the adviser, agreed on allowing the ninety-seven boys to divide into three separate chapters in a manner which was agreed on by the majority.

Four different plans for division were proposed by our boys who with Mr. Schwegler, inquired of authorities concerning their ideas on the different systems. After a great deal of consideration and debate the fellows finally decided on the plan that was used.

The Hi-Y helps to develop the ordinary American boy into becoming a good citizen of this nation. This idea was brought out in a few programs, one of which was a talk by Mr. Whiteside on "Parliamentary Procedure" in which the boys were deeply interested because the regular meetings of the club must be run in an official manner.

Mr. Pohto gave a very interesting talk on "Civilian Defense." This talk was extremely timely because we are all connected in some way. Either we have assigned duties or we are members of the civilian group and must know what Civilian Defense is all about.

Reverend Mayer brought out the Christmas spirit when he told all the boys about "The History of Christmas."

Getting into the lighter and gayer side of the club's activities, the boys enjoyed an exciting bowling tournament which was won by Dick Krielach's team and the winners were presented with medals in recognition of their evident superiority.

Later in February the boys devoted a meeting to an exciting four hours of basketball. The boys were divided into teams and played off in a series of eliminations until finally Walter Maroney's team ended an exciting evening victorious by a 32 to 16 win over Don Sherman's team.

The members picked four boys to attend Hi-Y Conferences at Springfield and Camp Nelson Dodd because all the boys could not possibly attend.

The report of the four boys, Jack Heuser, John Cox, John Telich and Walt Maroney, was delayed by a series of unavoidable incidents, but was finally given much to the gratitude of the rest of the boys.

The formal Hi-Y initiation for the mid-year entries was held on Tuesday, Mar. 10, in which thirty new members were admitted.

After the initiation of the new members a plan for division of the Hi-Y into chapters was accepted and the group was divided three ways by drawing names out of a hat.

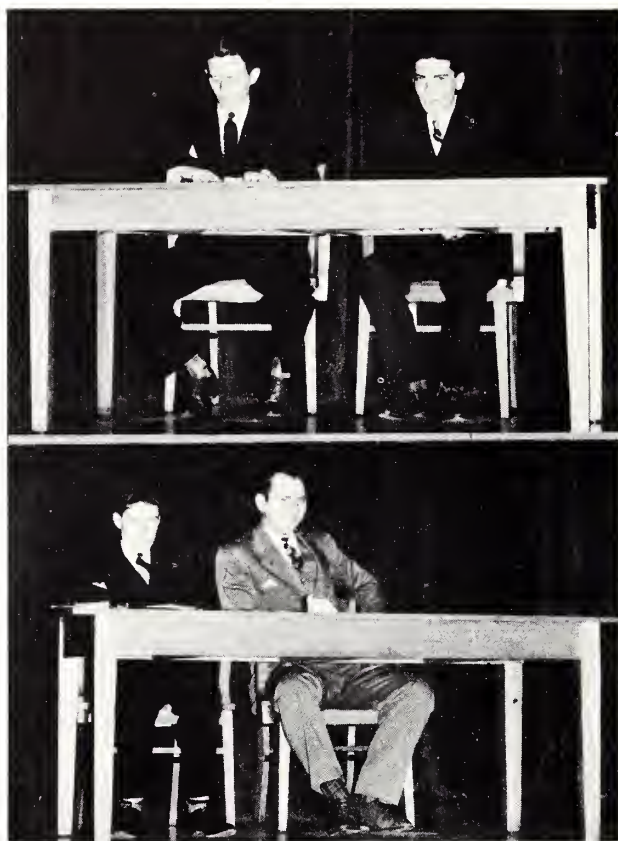

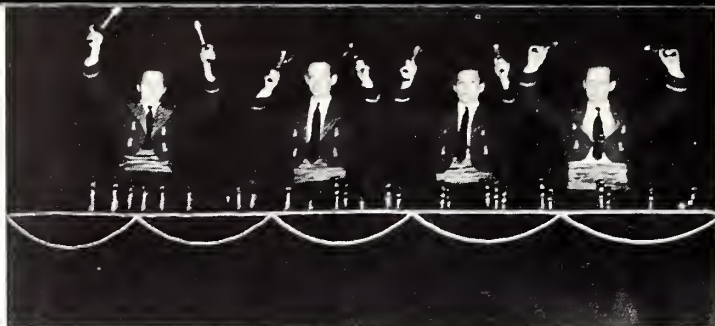

The resulting clubs, namely, Alpha Upsilon, Beta Upsilon and Gamma Upsilon had as their presidents Ed Holtcamp, Jack Heuser and Frank Berghoch respectively.

The other officers of the Alpha Upsilon were Ray Giesse, vice-president, Dick Netschke, treasurer, and John Cox, secretary. Those of Beta Upsilon were Paul Herrmann, vice-president, Thomas Mazick, treasurer, and John Telich, secretary. The other officers of Gamma Upsilon were Warren Jevnikar, vice-president, Albert Fischer, treasurer, and John Adams, secretary.

When new uniforms were presented to the cheer leaders by school supporters, it was found that only three had been purchased, so quickly following up the Student Council's offer of another, Walter Maroney, on behalf of the Hi-Y, presented another and so the five cheer leaders presented a very fine appearance at the following games.

Ending a very fine year the annual Hi-Y picnic was held much to the enjoyment of all concerned, and so the Hi-Y of 1941-42 leaves a fine record of activities and looks forward to another fine year.

Assemblies

This year, our assembly programs have shown a marked improvement. They not only have been educational, but interesting as well.

To further our interest and appreciation of music, a great many of our programs have been musical. Our first assembly was to show off the band and the majorettes with their new uniforms. Later, in the spring, we were given a band concert under the new directorship of Mr. Dale Harper. To deepen our appreciation of symphony music, there was a return engagement of the W.P.A. orchestra. Something novel in the way of musical entertainment was the program presented by the Bell Ringers and Singers. They performed many songs on the musical bells and a quartet rendered madrigal songs. Our chorus has also done a great deal of work and has given us several concerts, including an inspiring Christmas program.

Knowing that the mysterious and unexplainable is always fascinating, we were presented with two programs dealing with magic.

Mr. Stuart Cramer, well known magician, baffled us with mind-reading and other tricks, such as suspending a student in midair, making water and flowers appear out of seemingly empty jars, and doing incredible tricks with large rings. This magician, and another one who entertained us, left us all with a profound respect for the art of magic.

In order that we may better learn how to express ourselves in public, we learned some of the tricks when a debating team from Western Reserve met a team from the University of Pittsburgh.

Our own debating team here at Shore gave a demonstration of what they could do in one assembly program. An American Legion Oratorical contest was also featured with four of our students competing.

Nature is a fascinating subject but few of us know very much about it. Our interest was awakened and our knowledge enhanced by two programs dealing with nature. One was presented by the Washington Zoological Society, in which many actual live animals were brought on the stage and their habits and histories explained. Another naturalist showed us pictures and told us of life in the forests of the north. These colored movies left us all resolving that someday we'd take such a trip for ourselves.

Each of us should have a deeper appreciation by now of the men who made this country, especially after hearing two speeches on Abraham Lincoln. One was given by our superintendent, Mr. Erwine, and the other by a prominent man who made a hobby of collecting facts about Lincoln.

If we didn't know how to play Chinese games before, we do now. We learned much about the Chinese people; their customs, language and dress in an assembly program given by an American who was born in China.

Knowing that keeping up morale, is an important phase of army life, the "draftees" of Camp Euclid Shore were provided with many morale-building assembly programs,—commonly called "pep rallies." In these programs, "our boys" were cheered on to victory and greater laurels for their alma mater.

The problems of light-hearted youth form as the basis of the plot for "June Mad." Penny Wood along with Chuck Harris, the neighboring boy, are involved in many difficult but amusing situations. Penny's Uncle Mervyn, a college student only five years her senior, brings a sophisticated college friend, Roger Van Vleck, home from the campus with him. While trying to bring herself up to the sophisticated standards of this irresistible young man, she discovers Roger is deceiving Mervyn by trying to gain the affections of his girl. This realization brings her back to normal and back to the attention of Chuck.

COMBAT MANEUVERS

Walt Schwegler

John Pohto

Sparky DiBiasio

Anthony Vaccariello

Clarence Swackhammer

ANDY REPASKY—"Light but full of fight," suits Andy. A good center, a gentleman, and a good sport who could get rough with the best of them. His smile and ability will leave a big hole in the Shore squad which will have to be filled next season. How we'd someone can take Andy's place will go a long way toward deciding the success of the 1942 season.

DARRELL WICKSON—Shore's all-conference end —As Bedford said, "Where did he come from—we couldn't keep him out." What Darrell lacked in weight he made up in courage and fight. His performance should be a record for other small Shore boys to shoot at.

ART BOLON—Shore's captain and leader for 1940 lived up to his job 100 per cent. Respected by all teams as a leader, as well as a good guard, Art was highly recommended for the all-conference team. Had he been with a winner he undoubtedly would have been chosen on the first team; as it was he who was picked as the third best guard in the conference. His fine attitude and leadership will certainly be missed.

JOHN COX—A fine tackler in the open field who wins his second football letter as an end. His all around athletic ability will be missed.

Shore 0 Mayfield 7

Against Mayfield's champs, Shore showed plenty of power but was beaten as a late scoring threat was stopped on Mayfield's own two yard line.

ALBERT FISCHER—A sophomore letter winner as a guard and an even better player as a junior. Great things are expected of him next year as a player and leader and he certainly should be timber for the 1942 all-conference team.

DOMINIC DISANTO—A real leader as well as a vicious tackler will be lost to Shore by his graduation. Many league opponents chose him on the all-conference team but because of Shore's standing in the league he was placed on the second team. His courage, fight, and fine attitude were a real asset to Shore.

BILL WEIR—A good end who will be hard to replace especially as a pass receiver. Bill loved contact and that is football.

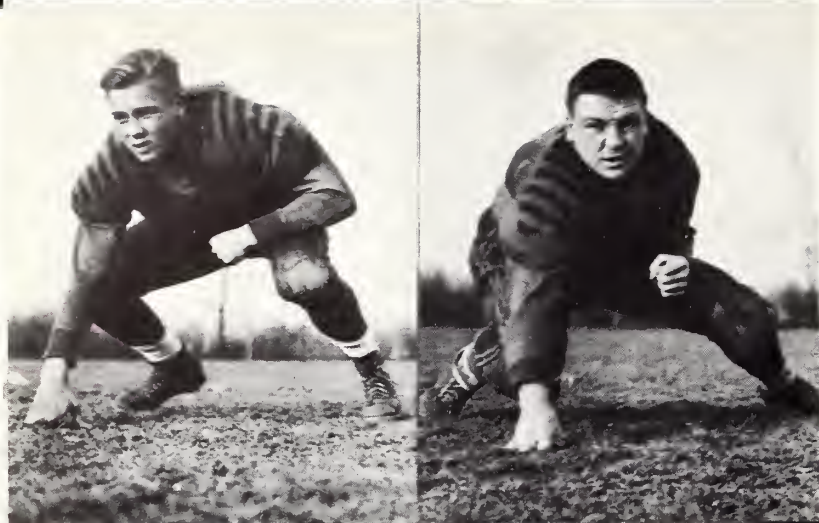

HENRY WALTERS—"Hard to get started—but if started—harder to stop." Central will testify to this, we are sure. If Henry can start in September 1942 and go until November, Shore will be heard from next year.

Shore 6 Central 0

Before the largest crowd of the year Shore gained revenge for the last years setback by riding over Central's Lions 6 to 0 at Willoughby stadium.

BILL GROSSMAN—"Another Grossman" means something to former Shoreites. To fill the shoes left by Bob and Jack Grossman is a big job and Bill does just that. Bill has a fine football career ahead and next year as a junior he should be one of the outstanding line men of the conference.

ED MALZ—A very serious conscientious guard who lacked experience but had a wonderful attitude and spirit. First out to practice and last to leave indicated his interest in football. It's too bad Ed didn't find his niche in football before his senior year. His experience should be an example to other boys of Shore who early in school life have no interest.

FRANK BERGOCH—He astounded Parma with his ability as a passer, but a shoulder injury kept his ability throttled all year. Frank is a fine runner and gave many a team a bad afternoon as was especially shown at Bedford, where he rivaled the best backs of the league. Frank's senior year should find him a shining light on a championship team.

HOWARD NELSON—Constantly plagued by injuries and lack of weight, Howard's ability as a hard player kept him in the lineup. His specialty was tackling and running to the weak side, and these made him well-respected by all opponents.

Shore 7 Brush 6

Outgaining and outplaying the Brush eleven, Shore was victorious with a score of 7 to 6.

NEAL NELSON—The most versatile member of the Shore team. Neal was picked by most every coach for the all-conference team, but because he was a junior they placed him on the second team, which incidently is made up mostly of seniors. Next year Neal should take his place among EGCC greats, as well as such former Shore players as Curto, Palko, Bezdek, Crockett, Montana, etc., all of whom were not only looked to in league competition but by Greater Cleveland as well.

RAY GIESSE—Never having been out for football before and being very light kept Ray in the background in the early season games. However, he soon blossomed into a good runner and a sure tackler, a combination hard to beat. With this year of experience and his desire to succeed, he looks like a sure bet for a good back next year in a good backfield on a good team.

DICK KREILACH—For two years one of the League's smallest but scrappiest players. This year he took over the hard job of man-in-motion in great style, and produced several fine examples of ball carrying. The Central game showed his worth to the squad as he consistently pepped up the Shore team.

FRED MEDVED—Shore's quarterback who did a good job of play calling. In the last game of the season he found himself as a runner and if this continues into next season he'll really be heard from. His prospects for developing into a great back next year are good and there's no limit to the heights he may reach.

Shore 6 Bedford 13

Against a highly touted Bedford eleven the Admirals had many scoring threats but failed to capitalize and Bedford was on the long end of a 13 to 7 score.

Shore 0      Orange 0

On a rain soaked gridiron Shore and Orange slashed and slid thru a scoreless and soggy game.

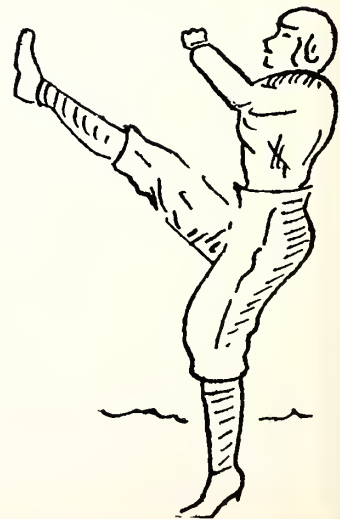

Shore 7      Garfield 20

Against last year's champs Shore was overpowered and at the end of the game were on the wrong end of the 20 to 7 count.

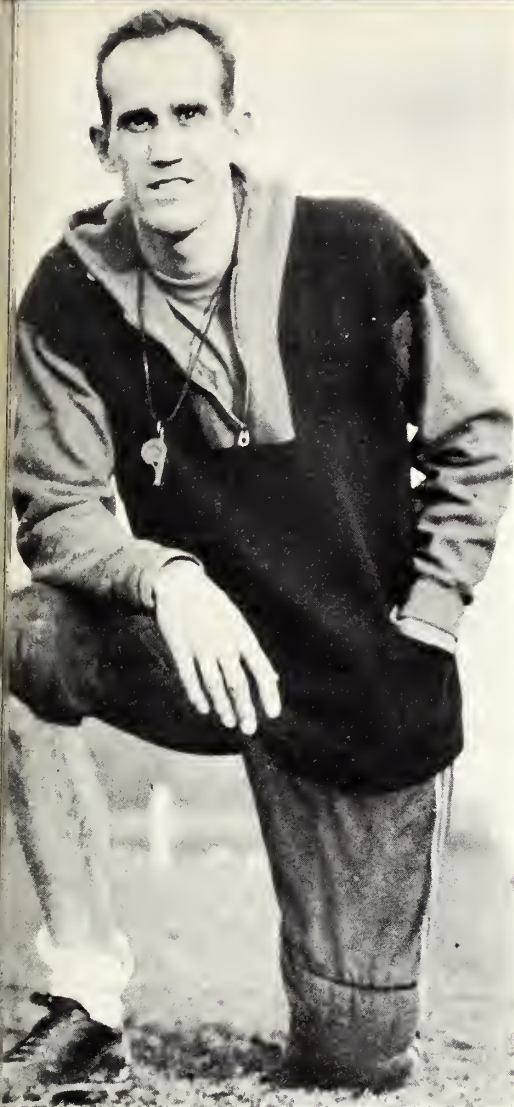

Shore 13      Maple Hts. 21

Showing their best offensive form of the season, Shore tallied twice in the opening quarter, only to have their opponents come back in the second half to score three touchdowns and a safety to win the game.

EDMUND RIDER

Each year Shore's football squad is blessed with a fine manager, but this year's, Edmund Rider, far surpassed his predecessors in his willingness, interest, and punctuality. His part in the 1941 football season was not only an important one, but one that will be long remembered, just as he will long remember the return from Willoughby on that famous Thursday night.

MR. SCHWEGLER

An athlete who can make two All Ohio teams surely must be a good one. That is the honor bestowed upon Walt Schwegler, Shore's head football coach for the last six years. Coach Schwegler was an All Ohio end in football and All Ohio center in basketball while attending Baldwin Wallace College.

While at Baldwin Wallace he won twelve varsity letters. He is the only person who has ever won so many letters at Baldwin Wallace. After graduation he began his coaching duties at Shadyside High School where he coached for seven years.

In the last six years he has won four championships. Frank Montana, Lenny Palko, Ray Bezdeck, Joe Curto, Ed Heglaw, Babe Lipovec and others are a few of his products.

Coach Schwegler brought the famous "T" formation to Shore in the last year.

"SPARKY" DIBIASIO

As often said, "Best things come in small packages." This fall Shore received a small package in the person of "Sparky" DiBiasio, new assistant football, basketball, and baseball coach.

An outstanding athlete during his high school and college days "Sparky" has proved very valuable in his chores of coaching the three sports. An all around athlete at West High School, Coach DiBiasio attained further laurels at Oberlin College, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball. His reserve basketball team enjoyed a very good season due to his fine coaching talent.

CHAMPS

FRANK BERGOCH—Bing was shifted to forward in an effort to strengthen the scoring punch of the Admirals. Bing proved deadly on one-hand shots and was a fine team player. He scored 25 points in two quarters in the Orange game to set a modern record for Shore.

WALTER MARONEY — Walt was a regular from last year. He proved to be Shore's speed merchant; shot equally well with either hand; he was always possessed with a fine competitive spirit.

NEAL NELSON—Neal took over the arduous duties of running guard which is the most difficult in the style of play in vogue at Shore. Aside from being a great all-around floor man on both offense, Nelson was Shore's most effective two-handed shot.

ED CICENAS—"Big Ed" was certainly a steadying influence to a rather erratic Shore team in the early season games. Back-board play at either end of the floor was his role and he enjoyed it. Ed graduated at mid-year after scoring 19 points against Orange in his last game.

TED BULLARD—Ted played his first year of varsity basketball and was noted for his fight and famous "jump shot." Ted had this particular worked out to a nicety and proved unstopable at times.

ART BOLON—Art was a fine ball handler and an excellent two-handed shot. Art was very fast and probably Shore's best man on assigned man-for-man defense.

JACK SHAFER — Jack worked equally well at either forward and was probably the best all-around shot on the squad. He featured in making the varsity look "ill" in practice sessions.

TOM BURNS—Tom was an excellent ball handler, fast, aggressive, and a fine shot with either hand. He may develop into one of Shore's better all-around players.

FRED NEVAR, Manager. An up-and-doing basketball manager, of our Admirals, he was a conscientious and painstaking keeper of equipment. Fred was a good player in his own right, but due to illness was unable to participate during this season.

Ford Case

"Coach of all sports but a lover of one." This is how Mr. Ford Case is always referred to. He has coached all sports, but his main interest lies in basketball.

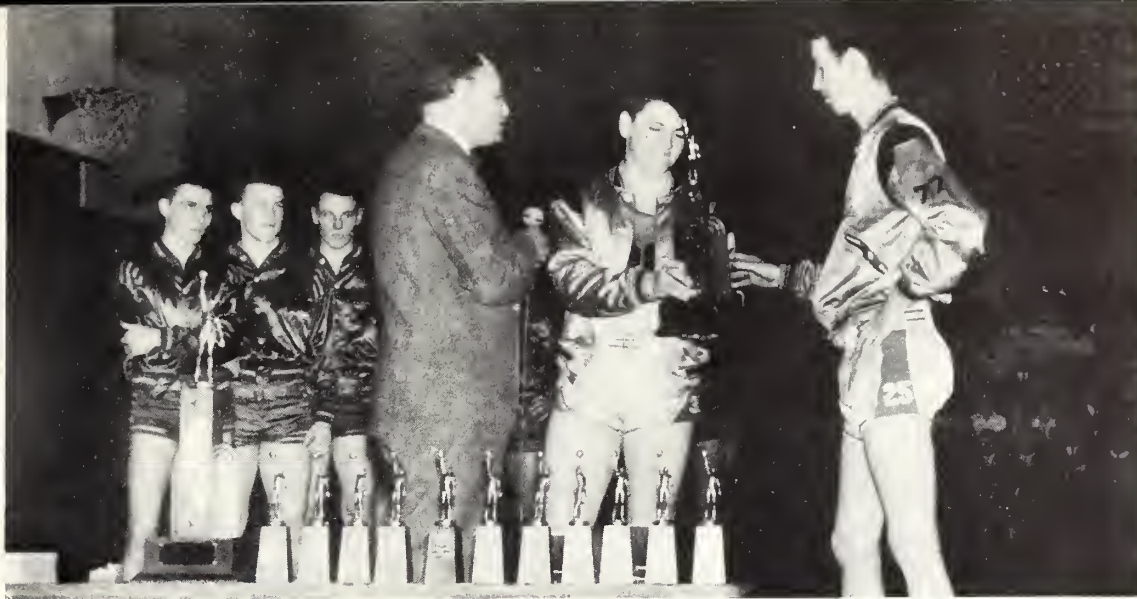

He was first familiarized with the sport in 1913 and in 1915 he introduced basketball to Bolivar High School as its first basketball coach.

Mr. Case came to Shore in 1925 as assistant to Coach Van Dusen. In 1930, however, he became head coach, and it was in 1932 that Shore won their first undisputed basketball championship under him. With this as a beginning Shore has since tied or won six championships in nine years, and has been runner up the other three years.

Mel, Harvey, and Bill Riebe, Art Brown, Frank Montana, Bill Simmermacher and Lambert Hawks are only a few of the great basketball players who have played under Mr. Case.

Cagers Victorious

Coach Case built this year's Eastern Conference basketball champs and runners-ups for the Class "A" District tournament around six returning lettermen from last year's squad. The returning lettermen were Walt Maroney, Neal Nelson, Ed Holtcamp, Art Bolon, Frank Bergoch, and Ed Ciccenas.

At the beginning of the season, Coach Case was experimenting with different combinations until he found one that would win basketball games for Shore.

In the first two games Shore swamped both of their opponents, Willoughby and Kirtland, by large scores. Fairport Harbor's tall and experienced team then handed the Admirals their first of five defeats.

Coach Case's chief worry then was to find a forward who could make points. He then shifted Frank Bergoch from backguard to pair with co-captain Maroney at right forward.

With Bergoch and Maroney at the forwards, Nelson and Herrmann at the guards, and Ciccenas at center, Shore started rolling.

They then defeated Wickliffe, Youngstown Campbell, and Bedford in order before dropping their second game to a tough and superior Canton Lehman five by a lopsided score.

Smarting from their defeat at the hands of Canton, the Admirals came back strong by pouring in 84 points to Orange's 24, and setting two school records. The 84 points set a new scoring record for one game, and Frank Bergoch set a new individual scoring record for one game by garnishing 25 points and breaking Harvey Riebe's record of 22.

The Admirals then were avenging the defeats Garfield handed them for the last two seasons by giving them a sound drubbing at Garfield for their third straight conference victory.

Striving for their fourth successive win in conference play, Shore was able to defeat a strong and scrappy Mayfield quintet by 6 points.

Maple Heights' Mustangs then turned the tide and defeated the Admirals on Heights' spacious floor in a heated contest. The loss of three of the starting five who went out on fouls early in the third quarter struck a severe blow to the Admiral's chances of winning the game.

The tide was still flowing against the Admirals the next evening when they lost their fourth game to Parma's tall five.

Euclid Central, our city rivals, was next on the Admiral's schedule. This game was played before one of the largest crowds ever to witness a league game in Shore's history. The fighting Admirals showed in this game that the last two defeats were a mistake by giving Central a severe walloping.

Brush was the last hurdle for the Admirals to jump before being undisputed champs of the Eastern Conference. Playing a good defensive and offensive game, Brush proved an easy opponent for Shore.

In the last game of the regular season Shore defeated Painesville Harvey High Raiders easily.

Shore was one of the four seeded teams in the tournament and reached the finals only to be beaten by Lakewood. In the first game Shore again swamped Euclid Central.

Ashtabula, the team that beat Shore in last year's tournament, was Shore's second victim. At first this was a very close game, but our Admirals then pulled away and beat them by 12 points.

The final hurdle for Shore before entering the finals was Berea, another seeded team and four-time champion of the Southwest Conference. This game was very fast and close all the way. A basket by Shore in the last 20 seconds was the deciding point of victory.

Shore then had to play the highly touted Rangers from Lakewood in the finals. This game proved to be one of the toughest of the season for Lakewood and Shore and one of the best in the tournament.

The Admirals who were the underdogs in the last two days showed their prowess by leading the Rangers the whole first half. Lakewood then lived up to their pre-tournament prediction by coming back strong in the third quarter to take the lead and never relinquishing the lead.

With less than a minute to go and Lakewood four points ahead, Shore garnered another basket to climb within two points of Lakewood's lead.

Second Team

This year Shore's Reserve basketball team was one of the best in its history. The team lost only one game and that was to a strong and superior varsity team.

The theory behind the Reserve team is to give the players valuable experience and teach them the fundamentals of the game before playing varsity competition.

The Reserve team built their prestige by sending players to the varsity before this year's basketball season was half over. They advanced such players as "Red" Jevnikar, Tom Burns, Tom Miller, Paul Herrmann, and Don Sherman.

The present players on the Reserve team will be the future varsity.

Wrestling

Coaches Vaccariello and Swackhammer built this year's wrestling team around two lettermen from last year's squad, Carl Enkler and Al Sugarman.

The majority of Shore's grapplers this year were Sophomores and Juniors who were trying to keep Shore's record of having a state champion wrestler in Columbus.

The first call for wrestling was answered by twenty industrious wrestlers. These boys practiced every day after school and it was very doubtful at first who was going to wrestle in the first meet for Shore.

Out of eight dual meets Shore came out victorious in five. Their defeats came at the hands of strong teams. John Hay beat Shore 30-8, Garfield won 22-12, and John Adams won by the score of 26-18.

Shore beat Euclid Central, Western Reserve Academy, Shaker Heights, East High, and University.

This year Shore placed more boys in the City finals than any other year. The boys who qualified were Mark Daniels, Al Sugarman, Bob Bosworth, Dick Strain, and Frank Gara. Al won a second place and the rest of the boys finished third with the exception of Daniels who placed fourth.

The following boys' pictures do not appear with the team: Frank Celizic, Dick Kraince, Eddie Schuler, Ken Daniels, and Glenn Smeltz.

Mark Daniels, one of the outstanding 105 pounders in the city is only a first year man on the squad. Mark did excellently in the City Tournament until an injury stopped him.

Harvey Mlachak did not secure his varsity S last year, but he more than made it this season. An aggressive wrestler, Harv will be with us next fall.

Alvin Sugarman, one of the most feared 140 pounders was beaten by a slight margin in the final round of the City Tournament at John Marshall. Al leaves us in June and his loss will be deeply felt.

Dick Strain, an eleventh grader, also reached the semi-final round and won third place in the tournament. He will have another chance next fall.

Dick Kraince, Bill Frizzell and Carl Enkler are depicted in the picture. They are in a referee's position and are awaiting the signal to start wrestling. All three boys will be back next year and we are expecting a great deal from them.

Frank Gara and Bob Bosworth, both of whom are first year men, placed in the eliminations at Garfield Heights, and each secured a third place in the final round. These aggressive boys will form a nucleus for the 1942-43 wrestling team.

Hockey Team

One of the best teams in Shore's history brought more glory to Shore, dropping only one game in seven engagements. This grand record, the icers all agree, is due greatly to the expert help from their coach, Mr. Vaccariello.

Starting the season with a 9 to 0 romp over John Marshall, the Admirals of the ice swept to victories over Cathedral Latin, East Tech, East, Holy Name, and a tie with a strong University team. The 4 to 4 tie with the Preppers was the highlight of the season. It was the first time a U. S. team has been held to a tie in three years of competition. The only game in which the pucksters were on the long end of the score was against St. Ignatius, who were the league leaders.

Darrell "Whitey" Wickson and Dick Kreilach, first line wings, paced the Shore attack until their graduation in January. However, the team kept going and won undisputed second place in the Greater Cleveland Hockey League.

DICK KREILACH—Dick was one of the fastest and surest shots in scholastic hockey. His loss at semester was a real blow to the team.

DARRELL WICKSON — High school hockey coaches are unanimous in acclaiming "Wickie" as the boy with the hardest shot. The "teamiest" of team players on the Shore squad.

JOHN COX—Flanked by Wickson and Kreilach, Johnny was the setter-upper for our goals. His record for goals and assists speaks for itself.

MR. VACCARIELLO

Head coach of wrestling, hockey, golf, and sponsor of the cheerleaders surely keeps a man busy. Mr. Vaccariello is the teacher who is kept so busy.

During the fall he is kept busy with the cheerleaders, in the winter with the hockey squad and wrestling, besides his cheerleading duties. In the spring, with golf.

As head coach of wrestling he brought Shore more honors when one of his wrestlers went on to win the city and state championship.

This year his hockey squad went to the semifinals in the Greater Cleveland Hockey League.

JOHN TELICH—An operation cut John's hockey career, but watch him next season.

AL DOBERDRUK, manager—Al has fulfilled his duty in an A-1 fashion. He is a credit to the whole team.

AL FISCHER—Al was a goalie respected by every team in the league. He has made sensational stops. We can look forward to next season and not worry about our goalie.

ED LANGA—Ed finally came through after a slow start. He pulled the famous "hat trick" in the East game, netting three goals and one assist. There is action when Ed is in the game.

DAVE STANFORD—Dave was a hockey player who baffled the goalie on many an occasion. Not a hard shooter but consistent and accurate.

JAMES ADAMS—Jack, as he is called, never knows when to quit. A four-and-one-half-inch gash on the thigh couldn't even stop him in the Benedictine game.

RAY PROSTOR—Ray is a fast skater whom we should watch in the near future. Only a sophomore, Ray played as well as the best of them.

BOB KOZAN—Appendicitis stopped Bob in mid-season. Keep your eye on him next year.

RAY GIESSE—Ray is a good stick-handler and team player. Ray likes plenty of skating and a great deal of action.

MERLE DONOHUE—Mike thrived on defending the goal. More than once, he has lent a helping hand to our goalie.

HOWARD NELSON—Mike and Howie work well together. Their passing and checking were way above average.

LOYAL LUIKART—Skippy will give his opponent plenty of trouble. He has proven his ability to check and his skating is faultless.

BOB CLASEN—Bob's first experience on the hockey squad made a lasting impression. We will lose him in June.

JIM KELLY—An unusual skater and plenty of trouble for the opposite team. Kelly broke in a little late but made up for lost time.

JIM SMITH—Jim is around when he is needed. A good skater with plenty of zip.

SHORE SLUGGERS

The Shore Admirals continued their high ranking in Metropolitan baseball by winning the Eastern Conference without losing a game. They were finally tripped by Shaw High in the Ohio sectional finals, 5-3.

This was the third season in four years that the Admirals have been on top of the Eastern division. They have made an enviable record of having lost but five league games in four years while winning 27 games.

The high lights of the season were Babe Lipovec's no-hit-no-run game against Garfield Heights to make a clean sweep of the conference and Ed Holtcamp's one hitter against the same team in the play-off series. The scores were 6-0 and 7-0, respectively.

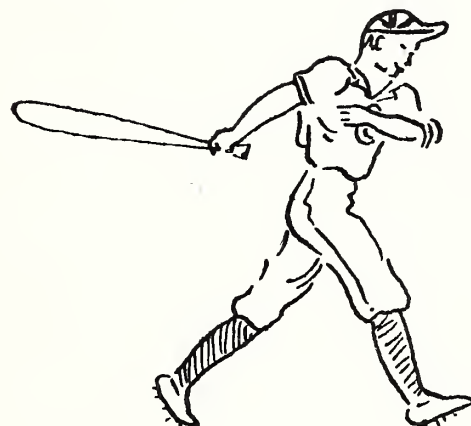

The Admirals lost only to Cleveland Heights in a non-league game that had no bearing on the standing, and to Shaw in the play-offs of the division and section.

Other members of the squad were Frank Knaus, Bill Weir, Dave Buerkel, Art Bolon, Jack Shafer, John Tarantino, Joe Roberts, and Rudy Kastelic. Dominic Disanto was manager.

Of this winning combination Ray Giesse, Neal Nelson, John Cox, Frank Bergoch, Fred Medved, Ed Holtcamp, Bill Wier, Jack Shafer, and John Tarantino were back to form the nucleus for 1942. Joe Sullivan was elected manager for 1942.

MR. POHTO

Did you ever see a grown-up with a big jaw that looks like a toothache while the Shore baseball team is practicing? This man is none other than John Pohto, Shore's baseball coach for the last twelve years.

In Mr. Pohto's years at Shore he has been head or assistant coach in baseball, football and wrestling. Baseball is the sport he likes best of all.

Shore has won the championship three times in the last five years. Before this Shore had won four championships and tied two. The Admirals never have finished lower than second place.

Some of the outstanding players that played under Mr. Pohto are Mel and Harvey Reibe, Herb Wagulemuth, Elmer Weinshrieder, Joe Curto, Babe Lipovec, Art Brown, and Art Gezann. Harvey is now playing on the Detroit Tigers team.

Shore's 1941 track season was only fair. Of seven dual meets they won four and lost three.

In the Eastern Greater Cleveland track championship which was held at Orange, Shore came in sixth. They had eleven and a half points.

Reginald Johnson, a sophomore, came in fourth in the 880 yard run. Bob Odell, a senior, placed third for the lowest of Shore's trackmen in the high jump.

Shore's freshman relay team looked like a promising group of boys for varsity track by placing second in the Freshman Relay.

Women's Auxiliary Force

Home defense! Physical fitness, a No. 1 factor for home defense is well promoted by our women student directors of Physical Education. A restricted number, who are elected into the Girls' Leaders Club each year, being qualified in leadership, character, physical ability, academic standing, dependability, and personality receive one of the most coveted honors awarded in the school.

This year the organization has successfully directed a schedule of intramural athletics and supervised the sale of United States Defense Stamps and Bonds for Shore.

The club, under the able direction of Miss Gill, helps girls all over the school in all sports.

If you have turned all the pages through to this point, you have seen the editorial section of the 1942 Canteen. And now that you have seen it, there seems only one thing left for us of the staff to say—we hope you like it. Some of you do not, of course, but we will try to swallow our pride and smile.

Both fun and headaches are essential parts of any yearbook's construction; the Canteen is no exception. The editor desperately hopes to be handed a diploma June 10 and wearily hopes you who have complaints will postpone their delivery until June 11.

In conclusion, the editor would like to express her appreciation and thanks to all those staff members who worked with her; to faculty advisor Mr. Lester Angene for his guidance; to Mr. Hinch, Mr. Vaughn, and Mr. Farquhar for their splendid cooperation; and to all students and faculty who aided the staff in the publication of this book.

PREPARED TO SERVE ANY BUSINESS
. . . ANY ORGANIZATION

Today, the watchword in business as well as government is preparedness . . . to be so equipped in methods, machines, and man power as to meet every emergency that may arise.

Just as a business should prepare to carry on successfully under changing world conditions, so graduates should continue their training. They should strive to gain knowledge by continued study and practical experience in office procedures.

A working knowledge of Addressograph-Multigraph methods that bring better and more economical results from work necessary in every office, is a distinct advantage to young men and women just starting their business careers. It helps them obtain employment more easily because of the increased value of their services.
